Award Ceremony National ORD Prize 2024

Podium Discussion Participants

ANGELIKA KALT

Chair of the Strategy Council (StraCo)
Director of the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF)

Angelika Kalt was professor of Petrology and Geodynamics at the University of Neuchâtel before becoming Director of the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF) in 2016. Since taking over the helm at SNSF, she has focused her efforts on modernising SNSF research funding in line with international trends - promoting cross-border collaboration, encouraging Open Access to publications and data, implementing the recommendations of the DORA Declaration, and facilitating Open Science. She is dedicated to improving conditions for researchers in Switzerland, in particular for young researchers and women.

Keynote Speaker

ANNEKE ZUIDERWIJK

TU Delft

Dr. Anneke Zuiderwijk has been working as an Associate Professor at the Faculty of Technology, Policy and Management at Delft University of Technology since April 2022. Previously she has been working as an Assistant Professor (2018-2022), postdoctoral researcher (2015-2018), and PhD candidate (2011-2015) at this faculty.

Moderation

MIRIAM MARGANI

Miriam Margani is responsible for communications at the Thun Art Museum, was head of the culture desk at Keystone-SDA, writes about film, music and literature as a freelance journalist and acts as a pop expert on the Radio Bingo Show on SRF1. In her podcasts "Chick-Chat" and "Call me Shirley", she is conducting interviews with women working for social change. Miriam Margani often takes on mandates within media work in the cultural sector and is also moderating different panel discussions.

YVES FLÜCKIGER

President of the Swiss Academies of Arts and Sciences

Yves Flückiger, President of the Swiss Academies of Arts and Sciences since January 2024, is a distinguished academic with expertise in labour economics, industrial organisation, and public finances. He holds a degree in Economics and Sociology and a doctorate in Political Economy from the University of Geneva. Flückiger has an extensive background in research and teaching, having been a research fellow and Harvard and Oxford, and served in various academic positions including Vice-Rector and later Rector of the University of Geneva. He was President of swissuniversities from 2020 to 2023 and President of the League of European Research Universities (LERU) until July 2023.

MARTIN VETTERLI

President of EPFL

Martin Vetterli, President of EPFL since 2017 and professor in the Audiovisual Communications Lab, is a prominent figure in Swiss Education and research. Educated at ETH Zurich and Stanford, with a Ph.D. from EPFL, he has taught at Columbia University, UC Berkeley, and EPFL. His research, recognized with the Latsis Prize and multiple honorary degrees, spans electrical engineering and computer science, contributing to over 200 publications and numerous startups.

Jury Chairwoman

EVIE VERGAUWE

University of Geneva

Evie Vergauwe obtained her master's degree in Experimental and Theoretical Psychology at the University of Ghent (Belgium) in 2006. She continued her studies at the University of Geneva where she obtained a PhD in Psychology in 2010 with a thesis on working memory. After a postdoctoral stay at the University of Missouri (USA), she returned to the University of Geneva in 2015 with an SNSF Ambizione fellowship. Evie Vergauwe then obtained an SNSF Eccellenza Professorial Fellowship, which allows her and her team to continue their research projects on working memory, cognition, and cognitive development in children. Since 2020, she's an associate professor and the Psychology of Cognitive Development chair at the Faculty of Psychology and Educational Sciences at the University of Geneva.
